

How can little children surprise their mother with birthday gifts as grownups do? Truthy Ruthy only wanted to surprise her beloved Mom and buy her birthday gifts for her birthday, as grownups do! However, being only five-years-old, she cannot drive a car or go shopping alone! The Wish Fairy pays her a visit and leaves her a box filled with very strange gifts. What's in the box? ***Surprise!*** This interactive picture book offers three different endings that represent different ways of thinking:

----- 1. PESSIMISTIC thinking brings disappointment. 2. POSITIVE thinking leads to remarkable ideas. 3. INNOVATIVE thinking leads to great ideas for all. *** You, too, will be surprised *** Give your child the very best gift - A Values Book: ----- ~
FOR PRESCHOOL CHILDREN: The options are so exciting! ~ FOR PARENTS: This childrens book, ages 4-8, teaches a few life lessons, helping young children to think outside the box from a young age, without our needing to say too much! This interactive childrens book, ages 4-8, serves as excellent learning-to-read material for preschool children and beginner readers. It also serves as an enjoyable anytime activity for the whole family. Read it as a bedtime story and watch them go to sleep with a big smile... Don't Forget To Download Your Free Gift! A Template For "My First Book" For Young Children. This interactive book comes with an unusual gift: a template that allows children to make their very own childrens picture book. Like Truthy Ruthys Birthday Surprise, the template provides space for children to create three possible endings to their own special stories. Download the template and let your child express their thoughts in story form. Note: This interactive book is based on Truthy Ruthys Christmas Surprise (Special Christmas Edition). The story is the same, but focuses on a Birthday Surprise. From Sari Barel, the Author: ----- "The idea of making an interactive childrens book for ages 4-8 with three different endings will help children to learn that there's always more than one solution to any of life's little dilemmas. As an international expert in creative thinking, I've always emphasized to parents that giving children the freedom to choose, and find their own solutions, is a great gift that will make a huge difference in their lives and will give them a new experience." This surprising interactive book is highly recommended. KINDLE UNLIMITED & AMAZON PRIME can read this book for FREE!
